TSX Venture Exchange Announces its 2010 TSX Venture 50

February 5, 2010

50 Emerging Companies Recognized as Rising Stars

February 5, 2010 (TORONTO) - TSX Venture Exchange today announced the 2010 TSX Venture 50; a ranking of strong performers listed on TSX Venture Exchange. These emerging companies have proven themselves to be the rising stars of Canada's public markets. The 50 companies delivered an average return of 410% in 2009.

"The 2010 TSX Venture 50 companies have an impressive track record," said John McCoach, President, TSX Venture Exchange. "We are pleased to offer a unique market that facilitates and encourages emerging companies to meet their goals."

The 2010 TSX Venture 50 is comprised of 10 companies from each of five industry sectors - Clean Technology, Diversified Industries, Mining, Oil & Gas and Technology and Life Sciences. They were selected based on four equally weighted criteria: return on investment, trading activity, analyst coverage and market capitalization growth.

This year's top ranked company is Romarco Minerals Inc. (R), a Toronto-based mining company.
