“Financial results of our core operations this quarter were largely consistent with previous quarters of this fiscal year, and continue to provide for our ability to invest in our growth strategy,” stated Mr. Gary Yeoman, Chair and CEO of iLOOKABOUT, “Our growth strategy includes geographic expansion within the United States, product enhancement and acceleration of deployment of existing applications including GeoViewPort, and new product development for our real estate data marketplace (the “ReBloc Platform”). Among other achievements this quarter, or shortly thereafter, we are pleased to report that the Company has entered a non-binding term sheet to acquire the assets of a US-based real estate valuation technology company and made significant steps in establishing the infrastructure required to support future development of the ReBloc Platform.”

Highlights of Financial Results:

Discussion with respect to the above noted results can be found in the Company’s MD&A.

<sup>2</sup>Adjusted EBITDA is an unaudited non-GAAP measure and does not have any standardized meaning prescribed under IFRS and, therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures employed by other reporting issuers. Management believes Adjusted EBITDA provides meaningful information with respect to the financial performance and value of the Company, as items that may obscure the underlying trends in the business performance are excluded. Adjusted EBITDA is defined and calculated by the Company as comprehensive income (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation/amortization of equipment and intangible assets, share-based compensation expense and other costs or income of a non-operating and/or non-recurring nature. The Company classifies income or costs as non-recurring if income or costs similar in nature are not reasonably expected to occur within the next two years nor have occurred during the prior two years, and such costs are significant.
